Credit Hours. 3 credits

Prerequisites. EXP 607: Graduate Research Project I

Course Description. Students who opt to complete a master's thesis or a graduate research project may take up to 3 additional credits to complete their project, and submit their work for presentation and/or publication. The scope of the project and credit hours must be approved by the graduate advisor in advance.

Required Course Materials. None

Course Requirements.
1. At the conclusion of EXP 607, the student will meet with his/her graduate research/thesis advisor to determine a timeline for submission of the review of literature, data analyses, and submission of one of the following: research paper, research article, or research poster.

2. All written drafts must follow the format of the target journal; otherwise the format will adhere to the guidelines used for ACSM’s Medicine and Science in Sports and Exercise.

3. Drafts will be provided to the graduate research/thesis advisor allowing for a two-week turnaround time for edits.

4. If the final project is a research article, the final draft of the review of literature and article submission must be in manuscript format and provided to the advisor at least three weeks prior to “reading day.”

5. Upon review, the advisor will inform the student if the final research submission is approved for credit or not. An electronic copy will be posted to Turnitin.com as part of the program requirements.

Grading. This course will be graded on a credit/no credit basis. To meet the requirements of the M.S. in Exercise Physiology program, the student must complete and submit an approved proposal (thesis, project, review paper, case report/study). The final project will include both written and presentation components.

Statement of the Right to Modify Course Content. The instructor and the University reserve the right to modify, amend, or change the syllabus (course requirements, grading policy, etc.) as the curriculum and/or program require(s).

Statement Regarding Accommodation for Disabilities. Students with documented disabilities who may need accommodations, or any student considering obtaining documentation should make an appointment with Ms. Martha Bledsoe, Director of Services for Students with Disabilities, no later than the first week of class. Her phone number is (262) 524-7335, or contact her via email at mbledsoe@carrollu.edu.
Statement of Due Notification. The Carroll University Academic Integrity Policy is located in your student handbook (https://my.carrollu.edu/ICS/Departments/Student_Affairs). I encourage you to familiarize yourself with it. If a student violates this policy in any way, I reserve the right to impose a sanction of failure on the assignment/assessment or failure in the course. If you have questions about appropriate citations, please ask.
