

2021 Ethos Awards Nomination Form

The ethos awards will be given to three undergraduate and/or graduate students at Carroll University. Faculty and staff members may nominate as many students they think meet one of the tenets of the Carroll Ethos statement. Completed nominations should be submitted to eshort@carrollu.edu by Thursday, April 1, 2021.

Carroll Ethos Statement:

Ethos is a Greek word meaning character. It is often used to describe the guiding beliefs of a person, group or organization.

At Carroll University, we are partners in creating a community that embraces respect, integrity, and stewardship. The quality of our life together is central to our mission of excellence in teaching, learning and service.

Respect

We will honor the dignity and worth of each member of our diverse community by building relationships of trust. We will be civil and kind as we engage one another in our work.

Integrity

We will offer our best selves and trust that others will do the same through honesty, fairness and strength of character.

Stewardship

We will cultivate and care for our human, natural and material resources with gratitude, responsibility and accountability.

Nominations for students should be no longer than three paragraphs in length (size 12, Times New Roman font, 1-inch margins).

A committee of Carroll University will review the nominations and submit the winning name to the Pioneer Honors and Awards Ceremony committee. You will be notified if your nominee has been chosen and the winner will be announced at the Pioneer Honors and Awards Ceremony on Wednesday, April 28, 2021.
